Kelly: Hello, Emma. How nice to see you!

Emma: Oh, Kelly, hi! Look at you, young lady. You look beautiful, sweetheart.

Kelly: Thank you, Emma. You look nice too.

Emma: Are you having a good time?

Kelly: Yes, I am.

Emma: And where is your mum?

Kelly: Can you see that woman over there? The one who has got red wavy hair and is wearing a blue dress. That's my mother.

Emma: Oh, I see. And who is that man?

Kelly: The man who has got short hair and is wearing a red tie is my uncle, and the man who has got a beard and is wearing a grey suit and green tie is my father.

Emma: And tell me, dear, who is that old lady?

Kelly: The old lady who has got grey hair is my grandma, and the old man who is next to her is my grandpa. He's wearing glasses now.

Emma: I see, honey. And where is your aunt?

Kelly: Can you see that woman who is wearing a green dress? That's my aunt.

Emma: And who is that girl?

Kelly: The girl who is wearing a hat is my cousin Vivian, and the little girl who is next to my mum is my sister.

Emma: And that young boy? Who is he?

Kelly: The one who has got blonde hair is my cousin Paul.

Emma: Wow, everybody has changed a lot.

Kelly: Well, people change...
